Country Club at Hong Lok Yuen. Kevin Underwood visited yet another private member club affiliated with the IAC network. After demanding business appointments in Hong Kong, I had the chance to unwind fully at the Country Club Hong Lok Yuen near Hong Kong, a little piece of paradise.

The great thing about the IAC network is that the affiliated private member clubs offer personal networking, business and relaxation on an international level. All affiliated clubs also offer top-notch service, which continues to impress me time and time again.

The country club in Hong Lok Yuen is an exclusive resort oasis situated in tranquil, green surroundings between Tai Po and Fanling in the "New District" of Hong Kong for nearly 30 years.

The club offers a wide range of athletic and recreational facilities such as swimming pools, tennis courts, squash courts, a well equipped gym, pétanque, table tennis and much more.

The delightful outdoor area is a veritable highlight boasting a fantastic pool complete with a waterfall, a pool bar that fulfils your every desire. The view of the green mountains surrounding the Hong Lok Yuen country club are impressive. You immediately feel completely relaxed and at ease.

The club also offers an outstanding selection of Chinese and western cuisine, which makes it the perfect place for dinner or meetings. The club is well equipped for company meetings, private parties, wedding banquets as well as out-of-house catering for every occasion.

Apart from its impressive location and facilities, full membership to its sister club, the World Trade Center Club, Hong Kong in Causeway Bay as well as the use of over 40 local and global partner clubs are included.

The exciting IAC network with fantastic private member clubs, leading business clubs, golf clubs and much more offer the perfect platform for international networking. The clubs belonging to the international associate clubs uniquely bring together a community of more than 250 clubs in 40 countries around the world.

Summary:

The Hong Lok Yuen Country Club is a perfect alternative to Hong Kong itself. With its impressive surroundings, this exclusive resort oasis allows you to unwind and feel completely at ease, not to mention its high recreational value. But that's not all, the country club is also well equipped for business meetings. Business and wellness are perfectly combined at this private member club. If you are in Hong Kong, I warmly recommend paying this country club a visit - you won't regret it
